

Harnessing Higher Profit from Pond Based IFS

Mr. Kallolakanta Bala

Village: Ostia, Block: Rajkanika, Dist: Kendrapara, PIN: 754220

Mobile: 9938240538

Age: 35 years

Educational qualification: Graduation

Resources owned by Farmer: 4 acres, 2acre pond based IFS model

Details of Enterprise: The pond-based IFS model is developed in an area of 2 acre in which Fishery in one acre pond, crop production in 3 acre of land including rice in Kharif season, Pulse and Vegetables in Rabi season, 200 bird capacity poultry units are important. He is using the pond dyke for cultivation of climber type vegetables. He possesses a blackgram badi preparation machine which add extra income to the basket.

Economic Advantage: There is 45% increase in the production level of the farm by adopting scientific methods with consultation with KVK and realizing a annual net Income of 3,15,000 from 4 acre land.

Employment generation: 285 man days per annum.

Contributing Factors for the success: Cultivation of high yielding crop varieties following improved package of practices and scientific pond management in pisciculture.

Importance for other Farmers: This farm acts as a model farm for the farmers of the locality.

